"It feels Old Hollywood," says owner Craig Susser.

THE A-LIST HANGOUT

FORGET STAR HOME TOURS. TO see Hollywood royalty, reserve a blue leather booth at Craig's, the year-old restaurant drawing power couples (George Clooney and Stacy Keibler) and power players (Zac Efron, Ryan Seacrest). Besides a hearty menu (the honey truffled chicken is Seacrest's fave!), the West Hollywood eatery fills a hole left by the 1995 shutdown of Chasen's steakhouse. As regular Ryan Phillippe tells Us, "Craig's has brought that feeling back!" (craigs.la)

ROBERT DOWNEY JR.

Psyched for His Son!

REPRISING HIS ROLE AS ICONIC SLEUTH Sherlock Holmes was a bit of a drag for Robert Downey Jr. To go undercover as a woman in Sherlock Holmes: A Game of Shadows (out now), he donned eye shadow, lipstick and a petticoat. "I looked like the lead singer from the Cure!" he jokes to Us. "My assistant said I looked like the Joker. How embarrassing." But the affable actor, 46, who just wrapped the superhero flick The Avengers, has some serious work ahead when he welcomes a son in late February with his wife, producer Susan, 38. "I'm very excited," says Downey, who has a son, Indio, 18, with ex-wife Deborah Falconer. "Can't wait!" ERICKA SÓUTER

"We improved things as we went along," says Downey (with Noomi Rapace) of improvising.
